

MULL'S HIDDEN TREASURE...

Mull has numerous rivers, lochs and lochans where it is possible to catch WILD BROWN TROUT. Although some of these lochs may be quite 'out of the way' the fish in them are worth catching - beautiful colours and markings and hard fighting.

Why not let Guy guide you around Mull's hills and glens to some of its most scenic lochs? There are SPECTACULAR VIEWS along the way and great opportunities to see some of the ISLAND'S RARER WILDLIFE.

MULL'S BEAUTIFUL RIVERS AND LOCHS

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR VISIT TO MULL'S SPECTACULAR LOCHS, RIVERS AND GLENS...

Guy Bolton, with over 20 years of local experience, can guide you to the best locations. His help and advice will make your fishing trip as successful as possible.

Specialising in lure fishing, Guy also has a good knowledge of fly and bait fishing.

salmon and sea trout. Fishes well in a spate with fly or spinner. The loch itself is the second largest on Mull and has, in recent years, shown good stocks of wild fish. Records over many years show sea trout of up to 20lbs. and salmon well into the 20s. In the right conditions dapping works very well.

MULL'S LOCHS AND RIVERS - A BRIEF GUIDE...

Loch Frisa Mull's largest loch at five miles long offers brown trout throughout the season with salmon and sea trout from July onwards (boat and bank permits). Good bags of 'brownies' are common in the early part of the season. The largest brown trout caught here weighed nearly 15lbs. I have caught many fish over the years, weighing between 4lbs and 6lbs. Wind direction can play a great part in whether the loch fishes well or not.

Boat & Bank

Loch Ba and River Ba Two miles of a gravel bed river running from the sea at the head of Loch na Keal. Although this is a short river it does have some great holding pools for brown trout. There are three boats available as well as bank fishing.

Fly & Bait only

Loch Torr Mainly brown trout with the occasional sea trout. The numbers of fish in this loch are great; although the fish are quite small they take well. This is a great loch for the novice fly fisherman.

Fly only

Aros Loch Again very accessible fishing, ideal for younger anglers. Predominantly rainbow trout with not too much room for fly fishing. Spinning and bait fishing are permitted.

Bank only

Aros River Spate river four miles long, running from Loch Frisa to the Sound of Mull at Aros most accessible river on Mull but has, in the past, produced some great fish.

Fly, Spin & Bait

River Coladoir Salmon and sea trout. Running from Glen More, this time to Pennyghael, a gravel bed spate river with fishing that can prove to be hard work due to the distance between runs and pools and the grassy tufts along the banks. Again, worth the effort on the right day.
